

Student Learning Outcomes

Students Learning Outcomes are evaluated over the course of the program to ensure the students are meeting the overall goals of the program

- Students will demonstrate appropriate positioning/ centering during radiographic exams
- Students will select technical factors.
- Students will demonstrate radiation protection
- Students will demonstrate oral communication skills
- Students will demonstrate written communication skills.
- Students will demonstrate critical thinking skills.
- Students will develop standards/ abilities performing on non-routine patients
- Students will be able to demonstrate growth in their profession
- Students will demonstrate work ethics