We appreciate your interest in a rotation at Ascension Genesys Hospital. Prior to completing this application, you must contact the Program Manager to confirm that the rotation is available. The application and the supporting documents must be submitted to the Medical Education Department at least 90 days prior to your requested rotation start date. A rotation is approved upon receipt of the application and all supporting documents. We must receive written notification 30 days in advance if a rotation needs to be cancelled.

The Program Manager will provide you with access to New Innovations to upload the following documents:

- Visiting Intern/Resident/Fellow Application
- A fully executed Affiliation Agreement
- A current Curriculum Vitae
- A copy of a valid Medical License, Controlled Substance License, and Federal DEA (if applicable)
- A copy of Medical School Diploma
- Proof of Professional Liability Insurance Coverage
- A letter of recommendation from your residency Program Director, which identifies your current status in the program and evaluates your progress thus far.
- A copy of the letter from the accreditation agency (ACGME) verifying your current program's status.
- A copy of your rotation schedule from your training program that specifically states the name of rotation at Genesys, the exact dates of the rotation, and the name of the hospital you are currently affiliated with, signed by your Program Director.
- A copy of current ACLS and BLS certification
- A copy of current immunizations including TB record. Please note your TB must be CURRENT for the entire length of the rotation.
- A copy of current influenza annual vaccination. Please note your influenza annual vaccination must be administered within the current academic year.
- A copy of ECFMG certificate (if applicable)
- A copy of your COVID-19 vaccination card.
